Faculty Bio
Dr. Pablo Brescia, Associate Professor of Latin American Literature at USF, is native of Buenos Aires and has spent extended periods of time in Argentina after emigrating to the U.S. He brings to the program a deep understanding a specialization in the theory and history of Latin American short fiction and 20th and 21st Centuries Argentine Literature.

Mariam Manzur Leiva, M.A., a native born Argentine, received her M.A. in Spanish from the University of South Florida and is currently an instructor in the Department of World Languages.

Contact
Rene Sanchez
Education Abroad, USF World
University of South Florida
4202 E. Fowler Ave. CGS101
Tampa, FL 33620
(813) 974 – 3104 | Fax: (813) 974 – 4613
rene@usf.edu

Dr. Pablo Brescia
World Languages
University of South Florida
4202 E. Fowler Ave. CPR411
Tampa, FL 33620
(813) 974 – 2717
pbrescia@usf.edu

Mariam Manzur Leiva
World Languages
University of South Florida
4202 E. Fowler Ave. CPR439
(813) 974 – 1750
mmanzurl@usf.edu
Overview
Buenos Aires, Argentina's vibrant capital has long been considered one of the cultural treasures of South America. Buenos Aires is the port city, the tango city, and the city of endless cafés. Bustling with all kinds of activity, there are over one hundred events of all kinds taking place in any given week: opera performances, concerts, movies, theatre, art museums, craft fairs and sports events. Join USF professor, Dr. Pablo Brescia as he guides students through an exploration the politics, history, and roots of Latin American national identities through the lens of great literature as well as an array of cultural activities in Buenos Aires. Students will also be able to take advantage of Spanish grammar and conversation courses to expand their abilities and heighten this life changing experience.

Course Information
This program offers courses in the following subject areas; however, please see our website for exact course numbers and credit hours: Intermediate Spanish Language, Literature, Politics, and Latin American Studies.

Program Cost
The estimated cost range for the program is $4,200 - $4,400 (view our website for up-to-date details).

Cost Includes
• Coursework / Credit Hours
• Accommodations
• Cultural Events and Program Related Excursions
• Meals as indicated by the itinerary
• Emergency Medical and Evacuation Insurance
• Airport Pick-up

Cost Does Not Include
• International Airfare
• Passport/Visa Fees (if required)
• Personal Expenses
• Some Meals
• Graduate Course Differential

Who Can Participate
The program is open to any student who has completed at least Spanish II or has the expressed approval of Dr. Brescia.

How to Apply
Applications are now entirely on-line. Please go to the program website and click on the “Apply Now” button.

For additional details and up to date information visit educationabroad.global.usf.edu/