USF in Brazil: Portuguese Language
July/August 2012

Overview
During a four-week sojourn, students will have a unique opportunity to live and study in the colonial town of Sao Luis, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Situated in Maranhao, in tropical northern Brazil, Sao Luis is characterized by a unique blend of African, European, and Indigenous cultures. The historic center is one of the best-preserved colonial neighborhoods in the Northeast. Its pastel-colored colonial buildings and cobbled streets give it a character of its own. The city is divided in two by a river separating the historic center and the more modern suburbs.
